

Colorado Office of Vital Statistics
Approved Identity Verification Documents Listing
List (2) Updated January 1, 2011

Purpose

This document supplements Office of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics - Policy Number 2006-01, which implements HB 03-1224, the Secure and Verifiable Identity Document Act. The following lists have been compiled to assist both customers and reviewing officials in knowing what documents may be used for appropriate, verifiable proof of identity. Other documents may be accepted or required at the discretion of the State Registrar. If six or more certified copies have previously been issued for the requested birth certificate, then a photo identification document from the primary listing is mandatory. Customers will be required to present at least one item from the Primary Listing or at least two items from the Secondary Listing. Items must be from separate categories. Each row is a separate category.

Unless otherwise specified below, all items must have been issued in the U.S.

Primary Listing – All documents presented must be current and valid. Expired documents drop to the Secondary Listing. Documents that do not contain either an issue or an expiration date will not be considered acceptable.

	The W-2 must have been issued within the last tax year.

NOT Acceptable

Category	Comment
Matricula consular cards	The Colorado legislature specifically identified this item for exclusion.
Birth certificates issued by foreign governments	Birth certificates issued by a foreign government are not acceptable, but they may be used to support an appeal.
City & county detention center ID cards	Jail ID's are normally not released to former inmates, and are also not verifiable.
Novelty ID cards	These cards may take a variety of formats, some of which are very close in appearance to an official ID. Often the only difference will be a small notation on the back of the card. When in doubt, check with the State Vital Records Security Officer at (303) 692-2232 or the ID Coordinator at 303-692-2235.
Souvenir birth certificates	Issued by hospitals, often with baby's footprints
Veterans Universal Access ID cards	While this is issued by US Veteran's Administration, the information they use to produce the card is not verified by the issuing agency.
Undated documents	ID documents that do not have either: (1) an issue date OR (2) an expiration date AND cannot be verified are not reliable proof of ID.
Temporary drivers license or temporary state ID cards	Issued from the department of motor vehicles from any US state or territory, except CO.
